

Bernard Controls' runners, finishers of the Paris Half-Marathon

Sunday the 5th of March, Bernard Controls' team jumped into Paris Half Marathon's adventure under a flood of rain, wind making time target slightly more difficult to achieve. Weather conditions have not prevented runners to successfully finish the race 1h32 to 2h23 later.

Sponsor since 2011 of a small number of runners preparing the Paris Marathon, Bernard Controls quickly started supporting more accessible races. This operation progressively attracted runners from all levels, motivated by challenge & competition but in a friendly spirit.
